THE WORLD UNSEEN

Saturday, September 27 at 1:15 PM

In 1950's South Africa, apartheid is just beginning. Free-spirited Amina (Sheetal Sheth) has broken all the rules of her conventional Indian community and the new government by running a café with her "colored" business partner. When she meets Miriam (Lisa Ray), a traditional wife and mother, their unexpected attraction sets in motion a chain of events that will change their lives forever. Official selection of the Toronto and London Film Festivals.

The 1947 Partition of the Northwest region of the Indian Subcontinent ushered in swift and devastating violence for which the aftershocks are still being felt today. Though sharing a common culture and history, the people of Pakistan and India have yet to speak candidly about this volatile period that divided a nation...until now. Narrated by Sanjina Kapoor, this is an extraordinary, insightful documentary with stunning cinematography.
