

INDO-US CHAMBER MEMBER SPOTLIGHT: THIRUNELLAI "TG" GANESHAN

Each month, the Indo-Chamber of Commerce holds a raffle at our business networking event for the opportunity to be highlighted in this spot. This month's winner is Thirunellai "TG" Ganeshan, Vice President of Finance, Busch Gardens Tampa & Adventure Island.

1. Describe your current role at Busch Gardens...

I serve as the Vice President of Finance for the Tampa parks of SeaWorld Parks and Entertainment. The company is headquartered in Orlando and the portfolio includes 10 parks – SeaWorld, Aquatica, Discovery Cove in Orlando, Busch Gardens and Adventure Island in Tampa Bay, SeaWorld at San Diego, SeaWorld at Texas, Busch Gardens and Water Country at Williamsburg Virginia, and Sesame Place at Langhorne, Pennsylvania. I function as the Chief Financial Officer for the second largest park system within the portfolio. As the head of Finance, I am responsible for the financial performance of the park and serve as the sounding board to the Park President and the Senior Leadership team of the park.

market for theme park operators in Florida and progress to improve the visa situation in Brazil will provide a good uplift to not only theme parks but also businesses in this region.

4. What role does Busch Gardens play in the local Tampa Bay Community?

Busch Gardens and the water park, Adventure Island, are good economic engines for the city of Tampa and local businesses. Every year, we attract millions of tourists from international markets and other states to visit the parks and also experience Tampa. In addition, we take great pride in our role as a corporate leader by supporting numerous community efforts. Each year, Busch Gardens supports environmental causes, educational programs and thousands of children and adults who have life-threatening illnesses, are mentally or physically challenged, disadvantaged, or face other hardships. This support is provided through contributions to charitable organizations worldwide, as well as through in-park events.

In the past decade, Busch Gardens Tampa Bay has contributed more than $18 million (cash and in-kind) through park supported programs and to a number of local organizations including United Way, Junior Achievement, Boys & Girls Clubs, American Cancer Society, Boys Scouts of America, Tampa Bay Partnership, American Heart Association, Make-A-Wish, Give Kids The World, Compassion Partners Program, and SeaWorld & Busch Gardens Conservation Fund.

5. What business opportunities are available for Indo-US members and your organization?

We are constantly looking to partner with businesses in the Tampa Bay community to highlight Tampa as a destination and increase the length of stay of visitors to Tampa. In addition, we as part of SeaWorld Parks and Entertainment, are proud to partner with a variety of local and national organizations in achieving mutually beneficial educational and conservation goals. Interactions include internships, cooperative learning programs, guest speakers, service learning opportunities, and education awareness campaigns.

On a similar note, I would encourage the community to visit Busch Gardens if you have not and promote the park to your visiting family and friends. This park provides a very unique experience in terms of animals, rides and shows that is available nowhere in Central Florida. We have launched several exciting new attractions in the park over the last 12 months that includes our newest coaster "Cheetah Hunt" and Cheetah Run animal habitat, Animal Care Center, and an enthralling ice-show called Iceplorations. Have a great time on your next visit to Busch Gardens and Adventure Island!

A theme park, even though looks as a very simple operation on the outside is comprised of several businesses in one entertaining package. There is the pure scale of operations, having to manage the traffic that comes with tens of thousands of guests day in and day out. We have a huge and unique animal collection that makes us one of the premier zoological facilities in the world. We provide Broadway style theatrical shows as well as several entertaining performances in the park, which in itself, is a separate line of business. To top it, we have a unique inventory of world class roller coasters and water rides. And we operate restaurants and retail stores inside the park and you can imagine the complexity of managing all these lines of businesses.

2. How did you initially get involved in the industry?

I started out as an Aerospace engineer from IIT-Madras, now known as Chennai. Little did I know that I would be managing theme parks. I started with Anheuser-Busch in St. Louis after my MBA at the University of Texas at Austin. Anheuser-Busch happened to own theme parks and it seemed like a fun place to work. As Anheuser-Busch was bought by In-Bev in 2008, there was an opportunity to join the theme park subsidiary in the newly created corporate offices in Orlando. I jumped at this opportunity and moved from St. Louis and helped the company transition through the In-Bev ownership and the sale of the theme parks to the Blackstone Private Equity Group. Last Fall, I joined the Tampa parks as the head of Finance.

3. What trends affect your industry?

The theme park industry falls in the entertainment and leisure segment; that is heavily dependent on discretionary consumer spending, consumer confidence, and economic cycles. The industry is rebounding from the economic slump with more U.S. consumers taking vacations that they perhaps, may have postponed the last few years. The industry also relies on travel, especially travel to destinations (Orlando, Tampa, San Diego) and airlift from key international markets. South America is becoming a very important
